

*Prospect of the Face & Reverse of the MEDAL,
which is the lowest Claim in the Sale.*

[3]

FOR SALE.

A large and elegant Variety of Gold and Silver Plate, Jewels, Medals, and other Rich and Valuable Curiosities,

By HEN. JERNEGAN, Banker :

Among which is the FINE GREAT SILVER CISTERN.

CONDITIONS of SALE.

The Number of Claims will be	63000
The Number of Non-Claims but	7000

Total Number 70000

By which, there will be Nine Claimants to One Non-Claimant; so that this Sale REVERSES the Division in the Bridge-Lottery, that is to say, Every Person who is so unfortunate as to have a Blank in the Lottery, will, for Ten Shillings only, be intitled to a Claim of Advantage in this Sale;

As thus,

The Course of Drawing, in the Lottery, REVERSED in the Sale, will direct and govern the Claims or Non-Claims of an equal Number of Sale-Receipts.

For, in whatever Course the BLANKS in the Bridge-Lottery shall happen to arise, the Bearers of such Sale-Receipts, whose Numbers shall agree with the said Blanks, will be intitled to Claims according to the Specification in the following Catalogue: Wherein note, That all Numbers arising Blank, as above, and not here specified, will be intitled to Silver Medals, as in the Frontispiece; so that all those Claims being Equal, it was needless to enlarge the Catalogue with their distinct Enumeration,

A 2 note,

N. B. Any Person, tho' not possessed of Tickets in the Lottery, may notwithstanding take Receipts in the Sale, it being Nine to One in his favour: And whereas the Receipts were printed last Year at Five Shillings each, but the Bridge-Lottery being since alter'd from Three and a Half to Nine Blanks to One Prize, they are to be taken now at Ten Shillings each, to avoid the Expence and needless Charge of reprinting them; and are to be had of Hen. Jernegan, Banker, at his House in Great Russel-Street, Covent-Garden; and at his House in Jermyn-Street, St. James's.

The last drawn Blank in the Bridge-Lottery before the last drawn Ticket, the Great fine Silver Cistern.

N. B. Silver Medals, without mixture of the large Claims, are assign'd for the last 499 Numbers, to prevent any Dispute that might arise from the probability there is that a considerable Number of Blanks may be left in the Wheel after drawing the last Prize in the Bridge-Lottery.
